Oil Salvage Ltd Health And Safety Policy Statement

Our Aims

Our aims are simply stated

- Promotion of health
- No harm to people
- Minimise our adverse impact on the environment wherever possible
- No incidents
- Enhancement of the communities and environment in which we work
- Continual Improvement beyond legal compliance

Everyone who works for or on behalf of Oil Salvage is responsible for ensuring his or her actions are consistent with these aims. Getting HSE right is critical to the wellbeing and welfare of our people, to the environment and to the success of our business and that of our customers.

If something does not feel safe, the chances are it's not. So don't do it, stop the job and speak up.

If you see others doing something that feels risky, stop them and report it.

"I and the other directors of Oil Salvage Ltd are wholly committed to these aims and objectives and will ensure adequate resources are made available to implement and review this policy."

Our Objectives

- Continue to support and develop our people within a culture of ownership and responsibility.
- A clear recognition that all incidents are preventable.
- To comply with all relevant HSE legislation
- To understand and control environmental impacts associated with our activities through the management of water, energy and waste and the prevention of pollution.
- To consult with our employees, contractors and customers to identify and continuously reduce the risks to those affected by our activities.
- Commit to continual improvement in HSE performance to improve standards.
- Open and timely monitoring, measuring and reporting of our objectives, targets and performance.
